

Chili cook-off champion wins ‘Golden Ladle’

March 1, 2016

Carol Vogel of Made in America Gift Shoppe in Waynesburg holds the “Golden Ladle” she won for serving up the best chili in Sunday’s Waynesburg Chili Cook-Off. Ten shops competed with a tasty array of family favorites, but voters chose Vogel’s hot and spicy mix, made from her own recipe. Her secret ingredient was easy to find – pieces of pepperoni mixed in with locally grown beef. Vogel gets the honor of hanging the ladle in her shop until next year’s cook-off. Her online business now has a home on 180 E. High St. and offers American-made gifts, including cedar soap dishes she and her husband make in their Jefferson home’s workshop.

We noticed you came from Facebook– check out the 89¢ subscription deal we have for you!

Yes please!

TRENDING NEWS

Police: W.Va. sisters arrested for retail theft were stealing 'for the fun of it'

Mariner East 1 pipeline completed; now shipping ethane, propane

Man dies in Springhill Township house fire

State auditor to review Marcellus Shale impact fee funds

Houston man charged with violating Megan's Law