

Have 'ewe' seen me?

May 16, 2016

Carla Michaux and grandson Ameer Douglas found this colorful sheep that is part of a flock on the loose along High Street in Waynesburg. Seven Waynesburg Merchants Guild shops are sponsoring sheep signs celebrating this weekend's Sheep and Fiber Festival at the Greene County Fairground and shoppers are urged to vote for their favorite sign. Votes are a penny each and proceeds go to funding children's activities at the festival, plus win a reward for the shop whose sheep receives the most votes. Name all the shops with sheep and enter your tally along with your votes and you will be eligible to win cash prizes at a drawing to be held at the festival on Saturday. Find any of the five "power ball" sheep that are elsewhere in town or around the county and the prize doubles. - C.R. Nelson/For the Observer-Reporter Order a Print

TRENDING NEWS

'She just kept smiling so other people didn't know'

West Greene comes out swinging, pounds GCC

Monessen man jailed in heroin case

Greene County CTC to hold recognition ceremony

Educational seminars coming to Waynesburg Farmers Market