

Patching on High Street

July 11, 2016

Pennsylvania Department of Transportation workers patched potholes on parts of High Street in Waynesburg Monday. The project, which began last week, restricted traffic to one lane, before the workers finished and reopened the street Monday afternoon. - Katie Anderson / Observer-Reporter Order a Print

TRENDING NEWS

West Finley man accused of holding wife hostage for almost two weeks

Trio jailed on heroin charges stemming from Mon City traffic stop

Entrepreneur planning to bring

Carroll Township man wanted in

'Bacon, Bourbon & Beer' to Park Placedozens of pickup truck tailgate thefts development

Charleroi man allegedly planned to give teen marijuana for sex