

Cherry Door now open for business in Waynesburg

August 23, 2016

Melody Broderick, a volunteer with the WHS-Greene hospital auxiliary, stands inside the Cherry Door, a thrift store that raises money for the hospital. The shop moved last month from its Elm Drive location in Franklin Township to a storefront at 120 W. High St. in Waynesburg. It reopened Aug. 1 and is open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Saturday. - Katie Anderson/Observer-Reporter Order a Print

TRENDING NEWS

Eighty Four hardest hit in Sunday storm, tornado warning issued in Greene County

95-year-old man hits the open road, completes cross-country drive

Former Cecil Township police chief gets jail time for misuse of funds

Lawsuit filed over stormwater runoff